

The Book Fair is Back Again

Section by Savannah Yates

Q: What was the impact that you noticed last year when the Book Fair was cancelled?

A: "Not having the book fair last year because of COVID restrictions hurt the library because we get our books from the profits made from the book fair each year." (Mrs. Irby)

Q: What have you noticed about the rate of children and teens reading books?

A: "Because of electronic games, telephones, etc. I think that students are reading less actual books. However, I do think they enjoy reading some books virtually on the MyOn website." (Mrs. Irby)

Intramural Football team

Section by Skylar Fragala

Beekman Charter's first intramural football team is in the books. There are four teams blue, black, yellow, and white. Cash Pates, Ryder Morton, Archer Daniels, Wyatt Ingram, and Baylor Scott were interviewed. They all said that they have friends on the teams. Ryder's favorite part was "to get the flags." Wyatt claimed his favorite part is "running around," and he wanted to be on the team because he "likes football." Baylor's favorite part is "being the quarterback" of the blue team, and he wanted to be on the team so he "could play with his friends." Archer's favorite part of the team is "running" and he wanted to play because "its fun." Lastly, Cash likes "throwing the football" and he "loves football."
